Re: Your Gift To Seton Hall University In Support of Italian Studies

Caro Pasquale,

On behalf of the students of the University's Italian Studies program who are the ultimate beneficiaries of your generosity, I want to thank you and all the members of the Columbian Foundation for your loyal support over the years, and for the most recent generous gift of $5,000 which you and Andy Vassallo presented to us last evening.

As in the past, your gift will achieve multiple goals. First, a portion is being used to fund the Columbian Foundation Scholarship for Ms. Paola Amato whom you had the opportunity to meet last evening. In addition, the balance will be applied in support of sustaining Alberto Institute programs which help promote and sustain Italian language, history and culture. Grazie Mille!

Thank you again for this most recent act of generosity on your Foundation's behalf. We look forward to welcoming you and your associates at the many Italian Studies events that we host on campus throughout the academic year. I have enclosed a copy of this semester's programs for you to share with your membership

Finally, no goods or services were provided in connection with this gift.

Sincerely,

Joseph Guasconi
